GAVE DINNER TO THE HOMELESS

Liberty Nonsectarian Mission Fed 200 Men and Boys.

Homeless men and boys were treated to a Thanksgiving dinner yesterday between 12 and 5 o'clock at the Liberty Nonsectarian Mission, No. 73 North Fourteenth street. The Reverend E. T. Coleman was in charge with a force of volunteer assistants. The only qualification necessary to obtain the meal was cleanliness, and at least 20 men and youngsters scrupulously washed and combed, appeared for their holiday meal in the afternoon.

There was fragrant turkey and potatoes and dressings, and the guests were treated to desserts, which were very good.

A dinner is served at the place every day, but this meal was exceptional. No payment was made, and the guests were asked to contribute to the fund for the mission.

The mission is just closing its fifth year, and during that time meetings have been held every day except the night of the great tornado, May 27, 1896, when the windows were blown in and no lights were possible.

Sands have been reduced by this mission, and it proposes to make this winter's campaign the best in its history.

Kentucky Lover Returns After Thirty-Six Years and Claims His Ever-Faithful Sweetheart.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 29.—A romance that began during the bloody times of 1864, culminated today at Frankfort in the marriage of Captain James Fizer and Miss Mary Tomlinson by Father Feyer of the Catholic Church, at the residence of M. J. Broderick.
The groom was captain in a company of the Fourth Kentucky, which was stationed here in the summer of 1861. At the social entertainment given by the citizens of the city of the occasion, he met Miss Mary, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Ralph Tomlinson, the first agent of the Kentucky Central Railroad.
The marriage of love at first sight, but on account of orders for the regiment to go to the front and the uncertainty of war, the pair did not meet until three months ago.

At the coming of peace, Captain Fizer was transferred to the Far West, during which time the correspondence had ceased, and each thought the other married. Captain Fizer, who is now stationed at the Soldiers' Home at Marion, Ind., recently came to Frankfort on a visit to renew old friendships, and finding Miss Mary still single, it was easy to recall the days of the war and renew the old love.

Captain Fizer and bride left for their home at Marion, Ind., immediately after the ceremony, with the best wishes of their many friends.
